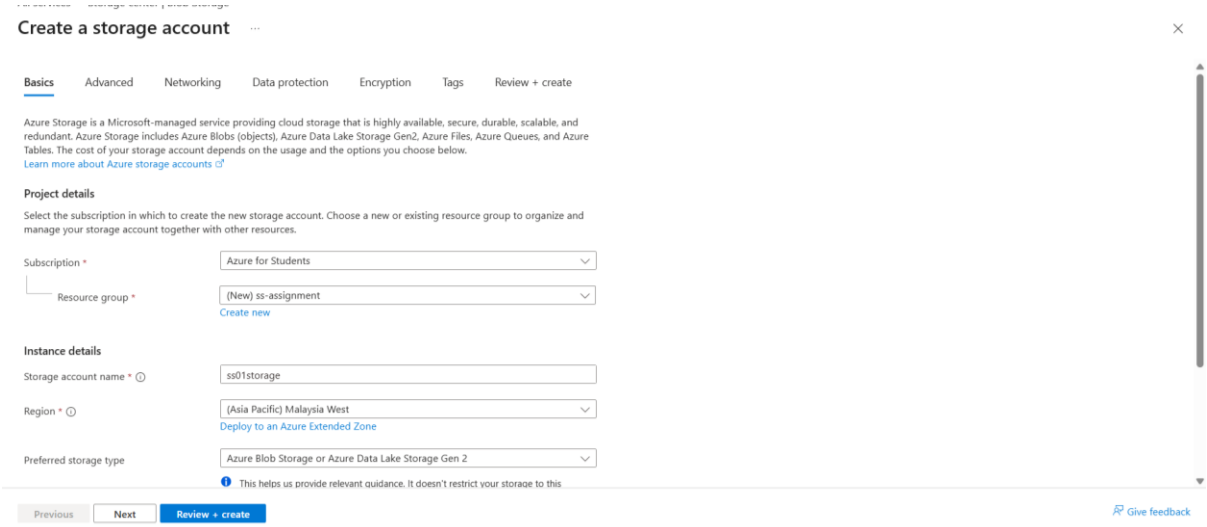
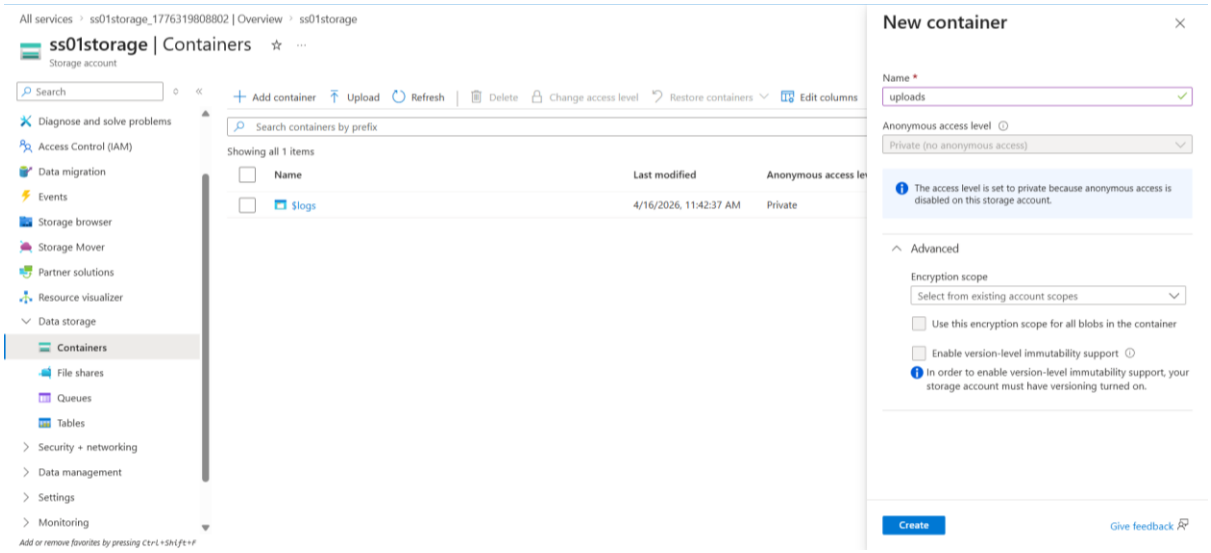
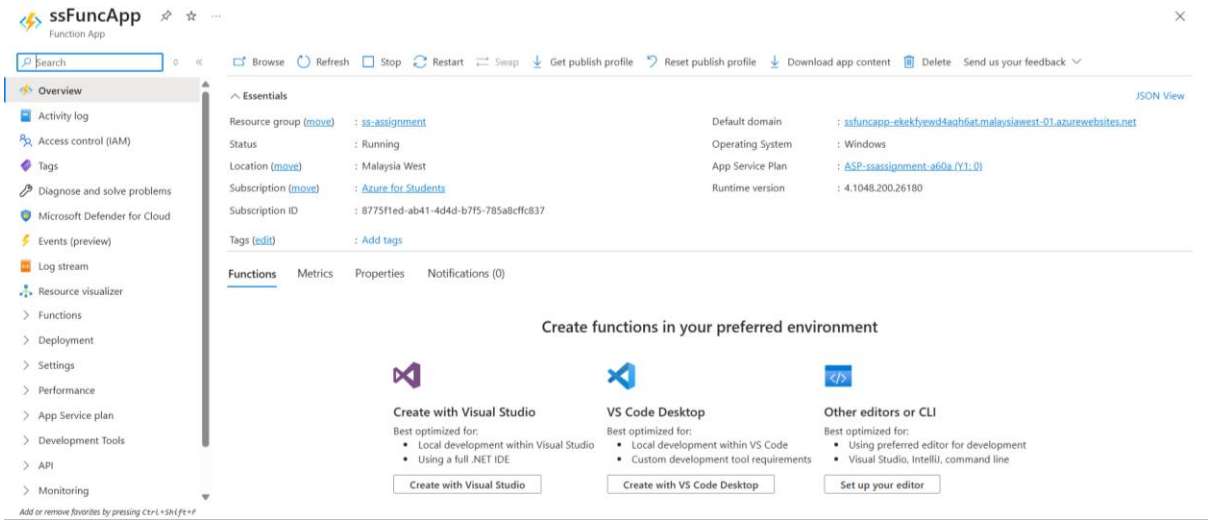
1.Create the storage account



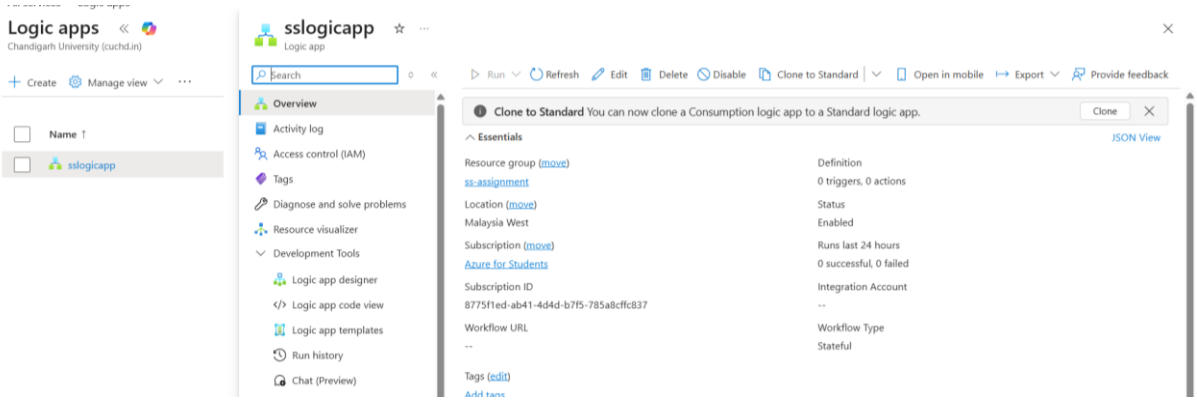
2. Creating a container



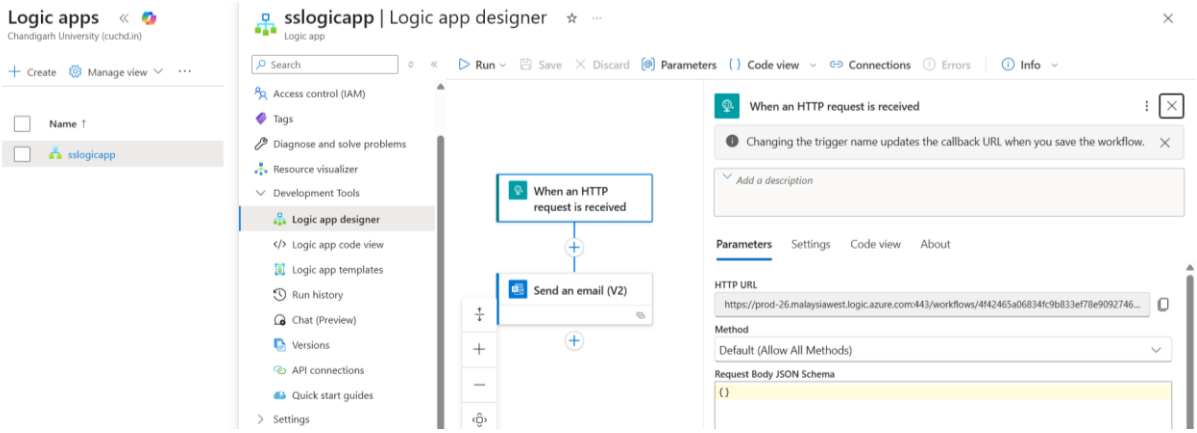
3. Create Function App(Consumption(Windows))



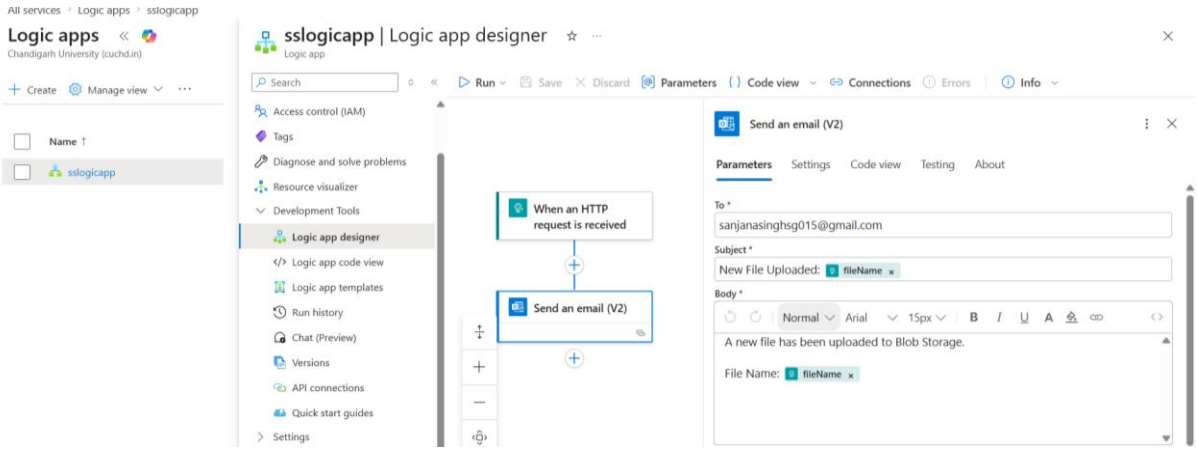
4. Create Logic App(Multi-tenant)



5. Go to logic app designer and add Triggers

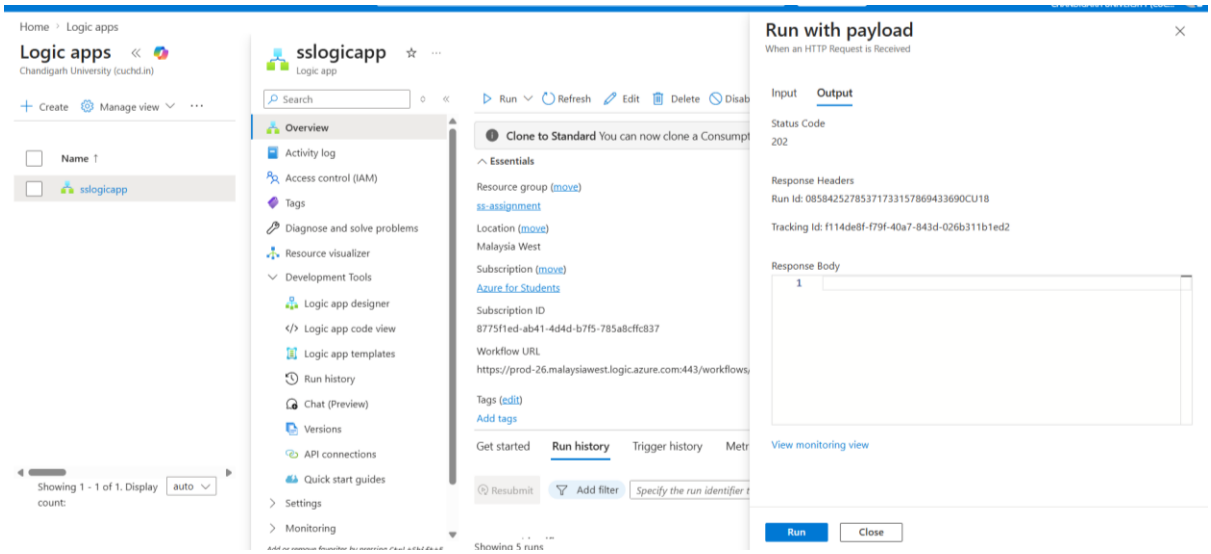


6.Add Action- send an email(v2) for outlook

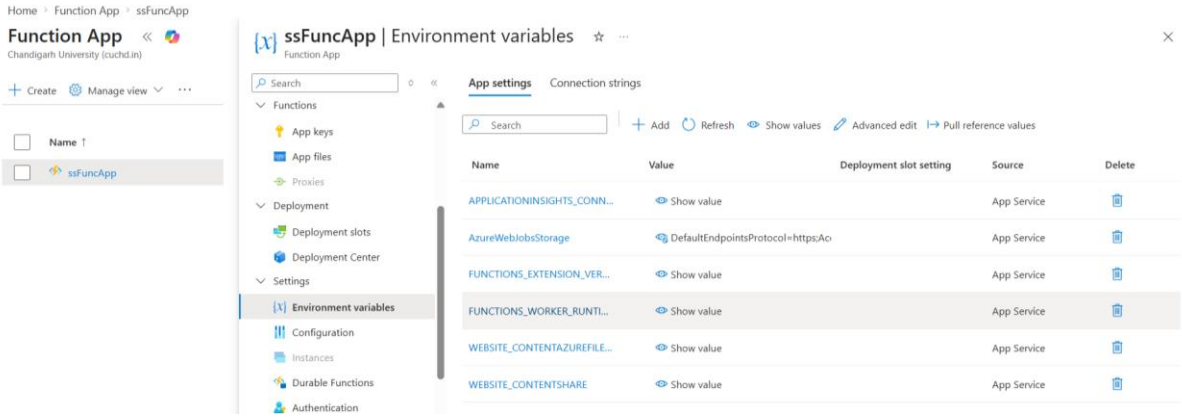


7. Go to overview and copy the workflow url and copy it to visual studio code

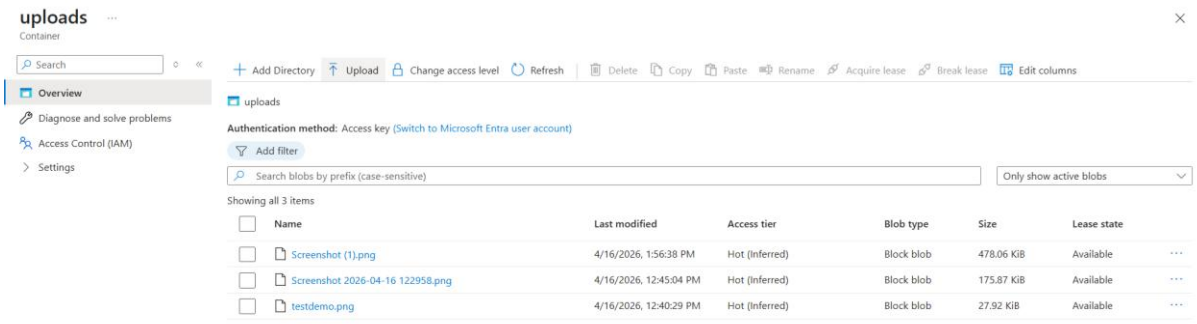
8. Running with payload

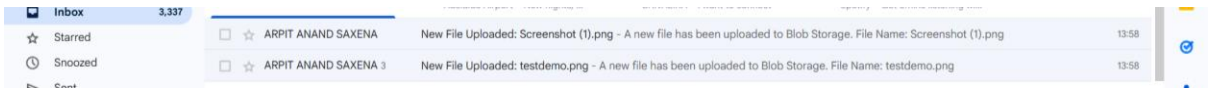


9. Changing the environment variable AzureWebJobStorage to the connectionString that we have copied from the storage access key.



10. After that uploading anything in the container will automatically trigger the mail.





11. Email received.